corporation of the City of Gautier began Monday morning in Jackson County Chancery Court. Councilman Michael Sullivan of Hattiesburg presiding.

Robert Prichard, attorney for the petitioners, called O'Bryant as a adverse witness and reviewed with the mayor testimony given in a deposition regarding the city's plans for annexation of the Gautier area.

O'Bryant said the city had no plans for annexing the area at this time. It was the mayor's personal opinion, that the city should consider annexation only when further studies showed it to be economically feasible and the area to be annexed could be smaller than the present legal requirement of the entire school district.

O'Bryant estimated at least a year or two would be needed before this criteria could be met.

Councilman Clarence Wilkinson was the second witness and said it was his personal opinion that ultimately Pascagoula should annex Gautier. "I would not put an exact time, some point where the economics of it were proper and it would be in the best interest of the people of Gautier and the people of Pascagoula to do so."

Wilkinson said he did not favor the city annexing to the east as that area was primarily industrial and would not offer land for residential development.

The last witness before the noon recess was council member Mrs. Peggy Hoover. In reply to Prichard's question regarding her feelings on annexation, Mrs. Hoover replied, "As far as I am personally concerned, I am ready to do it now."

Mrs. Hoover also said she felt the city was able to deliver the needed services should the area be annexed.

The hearing was recessed until 1:30 p.m.

In addition to Prichard, the petitioners are represented by William Ready; The City of Pascagoula is represented by John Corlew and Melvin Mitchell and the Citizens Concerned for Gautier's Future are represented by Sandy Steckler of Biloxi.

Although tight money in many areas—particularly the South and West—is expected to reduce the impact of the measure, the Veterans Administration is estimating that, in addition to facilitating home purchases for many former GIs, it will enable 35,000 veterans to buy housing.

The major provision of the bill, signed by President Nixon Oct. 26, removes all expiration dates for GI home loan applications. That, for World War II veterans, was last July 25. The date for Korea veterans varies with the individual.

The bill took immediate effect, except the mobile home provision, which goes into effect Dec. 22.
